Omicron Omicron Zeta Chapter

Zeta Phi Beta Sorority, Inc. was founded at Howard University in 1920. It is a professional non-profit organization with over 100,000 members throughout America, West Africa, West Germany, Bahamas Islands, Virgin Islands, South Korea and Italy. The sorority's ideals are scholarship, service, sisterhood and finer womanhood.

Omicron Omicron Zeta Chapter of Zeta Phi Beta Sorority, Inc. serves the communities in Gloucester County, New Jersey. The chapter sponsors the Stork's Nest a prenatal program. The Nest provides educational workshops and free baby items to mothers who attend the program. The Amicae, one of the sorority's auxiliary groups are woman who assist and support the ideals of the sorority. These women promote public relations among Zetas and other women in the county. Omicron Omicron Zeta Chapter also supports three youth groups. The Archonettes who are high school girls, the Amicettes, 9-12 year olds and the Pearlettes, girls 4-8 years old. The youth groups provide services and sisterhood to girls to the Gloucester County community.
