Zeta Amicae of Gloucester County, New Jersey

Evelyn Cullins Book Scholarship

Zeta Phi Beta Sorority, Incorporated was founded in 1920 based on the ideals of Scholarship, Service, Sisterly Love and Finer Womanhood. Today it is a professional non-profit organization with over 120,000 members in chapters throughout the United States, Africa, Asia, the Caribbean and Europe.

Zeta Amicae is the sorority's women's auxiliary group formed in 1948 to assist and support the graduate chapters in their local communities. Over the years the auxiliaries have rendered invaluable service to the Sorority and to the communities they serve.

Zeta Amicae of Gloucester County is the community-based auxiliary of Omicron Omicron Zeta Chapter, a graduate chapter of Zeta Phi Beta Sorority, Incorporated. The graduate chapter and the auxiliary serve the communities in Gloucester County, New Jersey.
